

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

ILD CEO Mike Lewis Named Northeast Florida Ultimate CEO

PONTE VEDRA BEACH, FL May 20, 2010 — ILD Corp. is pleased to announce that ILD Chairman and CEO Mike Lewis today was recognized as one of Northeast Florida's top CEOs for 2010 by the Jacksonville Business Journal.

Today's program held at the Marriott Southpoint in Jacksonville honored CEOs in Northeast Florida for their outstanding commitment to excellence, their leadership roles in their own organization, and their contributions to the local community.

Lewis credited his family, ILD's employees, of which 73% of his professional staff have worked for him at ILD for more than a decade, and the Jacksonville community for helping him gain this honor. Since Mike Lewis co-founded ILD Corp in 1996 with President and COO Dennis Stoutenburgh, the company has grown to generate annual revenue of over $100 million and includes brands such as RollCall Business Conferencing and Social Strategy1.

About ILD Corp.

ILD Corp. has offices in Dallas, San Antonio, Atlanta, Jacksonville and Fort Lauderdale, with corporate headquarters in Ponte Vedra Beach, Florida. ILD operates with more than 300 employees and over $100 million in annual revenues. Since 1996, ILD has helped US businesses maximize productivity and improve costs in the areas of payment processing and clearing, outsourced operator and call center services, teleconferencing and web collaboration solutions and social media strategies. For more information on ILD, visit www.ildcorp.com.

###